

Applying C: pooled $\Theta(T^{2-3/d})$ vs direct $\Theta(T^{2-2/d})$

Left is wall clock, right is the exact incidence count from the built structure. A phase pinned at the kernel-launch floor fits $\alpha \approx 0$ however small the count is; the right panel is free of that.